Mrs. Barksdale is visiting her son in the country.

Mrs. Emma Ramey is visiting her brother, S. R. Daly.

Criminal Court stands adjourned until next Monday week.

P. M. Burbank has been appointed post master at Dyersburg.

Ben Rosenfeld, Murfreesboro, is visiting his father's family.

Miss Blanche Leiber has returned from a visit to friends in Hopkinsville.

Jas. Neblett and wife, of Dickson county, are visiting the family of S. R. Daly.

City Marshal Clay Stacker has moved his office to the Chancery Court room.

Jno. Macrae and wife, and Jno. Fox went out to see Erwin Neblett Sunday evening.

Misses Kirtland and Goodlett are visiting Mrs. M. B. Johnson at Clarksville.—Nashville Herald.

Miss Maude King returned this morning from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Gus Singleton, of Paducah.

It is reported that J. Sid. Moore has been offered $200 per foot front for his property on Franklin street.

Hon. W. M. Daniel and Capt. J. J. Crusman will go to Dover Saturday for the purpose of forming a bivouac.

Misses Mary Richardson and Sallie Wyatt are visiting Mrs. R. B. Stone, at Cumberland Furnace, this week.

The Elliott family, who are trained bicyclists, will give an exhibition at the opera-house next Monday, the 17th.

Miss Sussie McWhirter, who has been visiting friends here the past week has returned to her home at Nashville.

The farmers on the South Side say that it is almost impossible for them to hire a negro for the year. They are all waiting to work on the new railroad.

Mrs. M. E. Forbes is lying very low at her residence with something resembling paralysis. Her many friends will be glad to hear of her early recovery.

The wood finishings of the Howell School building are receiving a fresh coat of paint. Now give the body a solid coat of red and it will be a shining beauty.

Judge Frank T. Reid has decided to try his fortunes in the West and has purchased property in Tacoma Wash. He will move his family there in a few days.

McAllister Bros. & Kirby have recently purchased a cornice machine, and now have it in their house on Franklin street. They can make any style of cornice needed.

A private letter received from Paul J. Wyatt, states that himself and wife are now at Kanawha Falls, West Va., and are likely to remain in that country some time.

Adairville correspondent Russellville Herald:—Mr. James H. Smith, Mayor of the city of Clarksville, Tenn., was in town, several days, last week, in the interest of his tobacco warehouse.

Mr. Wilcox is having a very handsome iron fence set on the front of his Madison street lot, where he is proposing to build. This will break up the cow campus where about fifty bovine pets meet in daily conclave.

Hopkinsville has paid the last of her $20,000 school bonds. The bonds were issued in 1885, and were to run thirty years, but the city has been retiring them for the last six years, and now the last of them have been paid, says the New Era.

Mr. Jas. A. Pigue, one of the oldest merchants of Nashville died at his residence on Vine street Tuesday. In 1856 Mr. Pigue married a Miss Brown of this place, who lived ten years after her marriage.

Frank Bell, the former popular and brilliant reporter of the Daily New Era, says the Hopkinsville correspondent to the American, has resigned his position on the Louisville Commercial and returned to his former position on the New Era.

Rev. R. E. Travis, New Providence, has been engaged to preach the dedicatory sermon of a church near Lynchburg Tenn. This is the church that was built through the efforts of Mr. Travis while on a visit to Lynchburg last summer.

Adairville correspondent Russellville Herald:—Connie Simmons accompanied by little Miss Sallie Grice visited Clarksville last week. Mr. Simmons is engaged in the mercantile business at Dallsams Creek, and while in Clarksville purchased supplies for his store.

Stone Abernathy, a son of the late G. T. Abernathy, will begin a school at Locust Grove, on the south side, on next Monday. He will be assisted by his sister, Miss Hattie. After having such excellent training as Prof. G. T. Abernathy could give, this couple will undoubtedly conduct a good school.

The Port Ends Sunk.

The tow boat Port Ends was sunk at Memphis Monday morning. The vessel belonged to the St. Louis & Mississippi Valley Transportation Company. She carried a crew of about 40 men and for awhile it seemed that the greater part of them would perish. They were all saved, however, but one man.

The vessel ran against a sunken pier, in a dense fog, and is a total wreck. The valuation put on the vessel was $50,000. The barges were saved together with their contents.

A Delightful Time.

The society correspondent at Hopkinsville for the American says:

"One of the most delightful and enjoyable entertainments of the season in this city was the ball given at the armory Thursday evening by the Jewish young men of Hopkinsville. A number of ladies and gentlemen were present from Clarksville, Gallatin and Nashville, among them the Misses Kleeman and others from Louisville and Henderson. An elegant supper was spread at midnight, and the dancing continued until morning."

A Narrow Escape.

Walter Atkinson came very near losing his life Saturday afternoon. He was standing on the platform at the passenger depot; a freight train was passing slowly and he carelessly put his hand on a car, throwing his weight against it and was instantly thrown with the moving train, falling between the track and the platform. He fell upon his face, bruising his head and mouth considerably, which bled freely. He laid still without moving hand or foot until the train stopped, which presence of mind saved his life.

Purchasing Agency.

Mrs. Rick, having opened a dress making establishment, will for the purpose of ladies living out of town, send samples and estimates on suits; purchase any line of goods and forward them to the applicants C. O. D. Dresses made in the latest styles and guaranteed to fit and to be well finished, from measurement sent. Millinery gloves, etc., will be furnished to match costumes when ordered. Special prices on trousseaus and mourning outfits. Address Mrs. F. E. Rick, Clarksville, Tenn.

A Foot Mashed.

Dr. W. A. Shelby covered himself all over with accident policies the other day and went out to the depot to have some coal oil inspected. While in the discharge of his duty a bunglesome negro dropped a piece of iron on his foot, just close enough, however, to raise several toenails, but not enough for him to be laid up, and get the benefit of his accident policy. He wants the negro killed on sight for not taking better aim. Next time he wants one who understands the accident policy thoroughly.

Judge Munford.

The Springfield Herald in speaking of the term of court just closed at Springfield, has the following compliment for Judge Munford:

"His Honor has exercised great patience throughout the entire session, which has been one of the longest and most fatiguing ever had here. The pains-taking yet expeditious manner in which he conducts his court, is a matter of congratulation to the bar and the litigants. He has won golden opinions from our people."

Real Estate.

[Thursday's Daily.]

Messrs Leech & Savage have recently purchased of G. E. Cook some of the most valuable property in the city. The purchase includes the four handsome residences fronting on Seventh street, beginning at Madison and running North about sixty feet for each of the four excellent lots, and the property on the corner of Fifth and Franklin, taking in the house now occupied by the Misses Dowell, and an old house on the corner. This lot fronts nearly 200 feet on Franklin street and about 85 on Fifth. The price paid was $22,000, with $5,000 cash.

This sale takes in some of the best property in the city, and it is purchased by two of the liveliest young men in any city. It strikes the average thinker that the price paid was pretty high, but the valuation of city property is steadily increasing and in a few months, perhaps, this same property will be worth double the price paid.

It was recently reported on the streets this morning that this deal had been made by Messrs Leech & Savage, for Mr. L. A. Ragsdale. A CHRONICLE reporter interviewed Mr. Savage on the subject and that gentleman says there is no truth in the rumor, and that the property was purchased for Leech & Savage, and for no one else.

Public School Money.

G. W. Warfield, trustee of the county, has made a distribution of school money for the several school districts of the county as follows:

Hardcastle—Lyle.

Mr. Ewing Hardcastle, of Bowling Green, and Mrs. Virgin Lyle, of this county, were happily united in marriage Feb. 5, H. H. Mockbee officiating. The bride is well known in the city as the daughter of Mrs. Dean and lived in the city several years with her mother. She is a splendid lady, of amiable character and domestic habits, and it will be gratifying to her friends that she has married a gentleman capable of appreciating her worth, and who is a good farmer with sufficient means to support her and children and mother in comfort. Mr. Hardcastle owns a good farm near Bowling Green, and his wife has a valuable place on the south side and it is not known which place they will occupy.

Will Not Attend.

It has been rumored that part of Forbes Bivouac would attend the meeting of the old soldiers at Fort Donelson Saturday, but owing to the fact that a boat could not be easily had no delegation will go from here. It has been erroneously published that Capt. Crusman and Hon. W. M. Daniel would go down for the purpose of forming a Bivouac, but neither of the gentlemen can attend.

A House Burned.

The house occupied by Mr. Sam Buchanan, just across the river, was destroyed by fire Sunday about noon. Nearly all the household goods were destroyed, entailing a pretty heavy loss to the owner. Mr. Buchanan is a poor man, and has only recently been married, which makes it all the more disastrous to him. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Rheumatism and Catarrh.

Rheumatism and catarrh are both blood diseases. In many severe cases they have both yielded to treatment with B. B. B. (Bottled Blood Balm), made by B. B. B. Co., Atlanta, Ga. Write for book of convincing proofs. Sent free.

R. P. Dodge, Atlanta, Ga., says: "My wife had catarrh and nothing did her any good. Her constitution finally failed and poison got into her blood. I placed her on a use of B. B. B., and to my surprise her recovery was rapid and complete."

W. F. McDaniel, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was much emaciated and had rheumatism so bad I could not get along without crutches. I also had neuralgia in the head. First-class physicians did me no good. Then I tried B. B. B., and its effects were magical. I cheerfully recommend it as a good tonic and a quick cure."

Mrs. Matilda Nichols, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "I had catarrh six years and a most distressing cough, and my eyes were much swollen. Five bottles of B. B. B., thank God, cured me."

John M. Davis, Tyler, Texas, writes: "I was subject a number of years to spells of inflammatory rheumatism, which six bottles of B. B. B., thank heaven, has entirely cured. I have not felt the slightest pain since."

Tennessee Orators.

Yancey, of the Age-Herald, says that in all that has been said concerning the orators of Tennessee no mention has been made of Barclay Martin, a venerable citizen of Maury county. Mr. Martin served in Congress with John Quincy Adams, who pronounced him the greatest American orator since Patrick Henry. To Barclay Martin, says the writer, might be added Emerson Ethridge, John F. House and William Cullom, all of whom have acted a conspicuous part in the halls of our National councils.

Wm. Eckles Dead.

Wm. Eckles, one of the oldest citizens of Robertson county, died at Cedar Hill Monday morning. For a number of years Mr. Eckles was a merchant at Springfield but for the last ten years he has been living with friends at Cedar Hill.

Not a Pimple on Baby.

Baby one year old. Bad with Eczema. Hair all gone. Scalp covered with eruptions. Cured by Cuticura. Hair splendid and not a pimple on him.

Cured by Cuticura.

I cannot say enough in praise of the Cuticura Remedies. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema, that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scald-head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the Cuticura Remedies, and "I" happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the Cuticura Remedies to mothers as the most speedy, economical and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

Mrs. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me.

Fever Sore Eight Years.

I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured by the use of Cuticura Remedies, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever, eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well, sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. CASON, merchant, JNO. V. MINOR, Druggist, Gainesboro, Tenn.

We have been selling your Cuticura Remedies for years, and have the first complaint yet to receive from a purchaser. One of the worst cases of scrofula I ever saw was cured by them.

TAYLOR & TAYLOR, Frankfort, Kan.
